 Deadline: 20/11/2024

Project: “Advancing media freedom in Moldova”¹

■ Do you have experience in the implementation of technical co-operation projects? Are you passionate about reforms in the field of media and freedom of expression in the Republic of Moldova? Do you have solid experience of working in the international organisations in this field? Would you like to contribute to the activities of an International Organisation working for human rights, democracy, and the rule of law? If so, our job offer may be the right opportunity for you.

Who we are

■ With over 2600 staff members coming from all its 46 member States, the Council of Europe is a multicultural organisation. We all strive towards protecting human rights, democracy and the rule of law and our three core values - professionalism, integrity and respect - guide the way we work.

■ The Council of Europe has its headquarters in Strasbourg (France) and has external presence in more than twenty countries. See here for more information about the Council of Europe external presence.

■ The Council of Europe project “Advancing media freedom in Moldova” is part of the Council of Europe Action Plan 2025-2028 for the Republic of Moldova.

The project works towards achieving the following outcomes:

- relevant national authorities have the capacities to improve and implement the audiovisual, media, and access to information legal framework in line with the Council of Europe standards;
- the public service broadcaster and independent media outlets have enhanced capacities for content diversification, increased independence and professionalism.
- relevant authorities and stakeholders are empowered to tackle the risk of information disorder and promote media literacy in the country.

The overall objective of the project is that media freedom and pluralism in the Republic of Moldova is strengthened through improved legal norms and stronger institutional guarantees.
